Important Information About Application Processes

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies every customer. What this means to you: When you apply for a loan, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Representation

The undersigned certifies that I intend to apply for credit in the manner indicated in this application and certify that everything stated in this application and on any attachment is complete and accurate. IncredibleBank may keep this application whether or not it is approved. I certify that the credit being applied for will be used for business purposes. My signature also certifies that the information on this application and all supporting documentation is true, that my intent is to apply for business purpose credit in which the use of the proceeds will not be used to secure a personal dwelling or for home improvements and that I am aware that this application is not a commitment to lend. I understand that I may be required to submit additional information to IncredibleBank in order to process this business loan request(s). My signature on this application authorizes IncredibleBank to perform an investigation into the creditworthiness of my business which may include, but is not limited to, IncredibleBank obtaining credit reporting information on each individual applicant, owner or guarantor. For Wisconsin residents only: No provision of a marital property agreement, unilateral statement under s.766.59, Wis. Stats, or a court decree under s.766.70, Wis. Stats, adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred.
